

Admiral Group Statement on EU Gender Directive

1 March 2011 7:00 AM GMT

We are pleased that the European Court of Justice has decided to grant insurers a period of grace in order to introduce the necessary changes. We will now be taking some time to digest the full meaning of the ruling for British insurers and use the transition period to introduce an accurate, gender neutral pricing structure.